

Why you shouldn't have missed Day 2 of Vogue Wedding Show

If you thought Day 1 of Vogue Wedding Show was exciting, you had to have stopped by Day 2 of the annual event.

While some eager brides spent the day checking out the stalls of Payal Singhal, Rahul Mishra, Monisha Jaising and other designers, others got to catch up on all things beauty with celebrity make-up artist Namrata Soni at her masterclass. Another big highlight of the day was ace wedding planner Vandana Mohan's masterclass, which gave families insights on how to put together an unforgettable celebration.

Amongst the many other must-visit stalls of the day were those of Naina Jain from Kolkata, jewellery label House of Surana, Jade by Monica and Karishma, and Jaipur rugs. Add to that two fashion shows showcasing some of the best wedding wear at the venue, and you've got yourself a day very well spent.
